Your next exponential leap.

Personal

Hi,

something you said in our last conversation stayed with me. I recognised it at once: a map you've outgrown.

You're not the only one. It's one of the most common brakes on leaders entering a new chapter. That's why we built a pile of useful tools and gadgets that help release it fast.

For exactly this problem there is a whole free part: this guide, what the state is and how it works, and free tools. You can do all of it yourself. The next pages say what to expect; results vary, the direction doesn't.

A big chapter is in front of you. This is the right time.

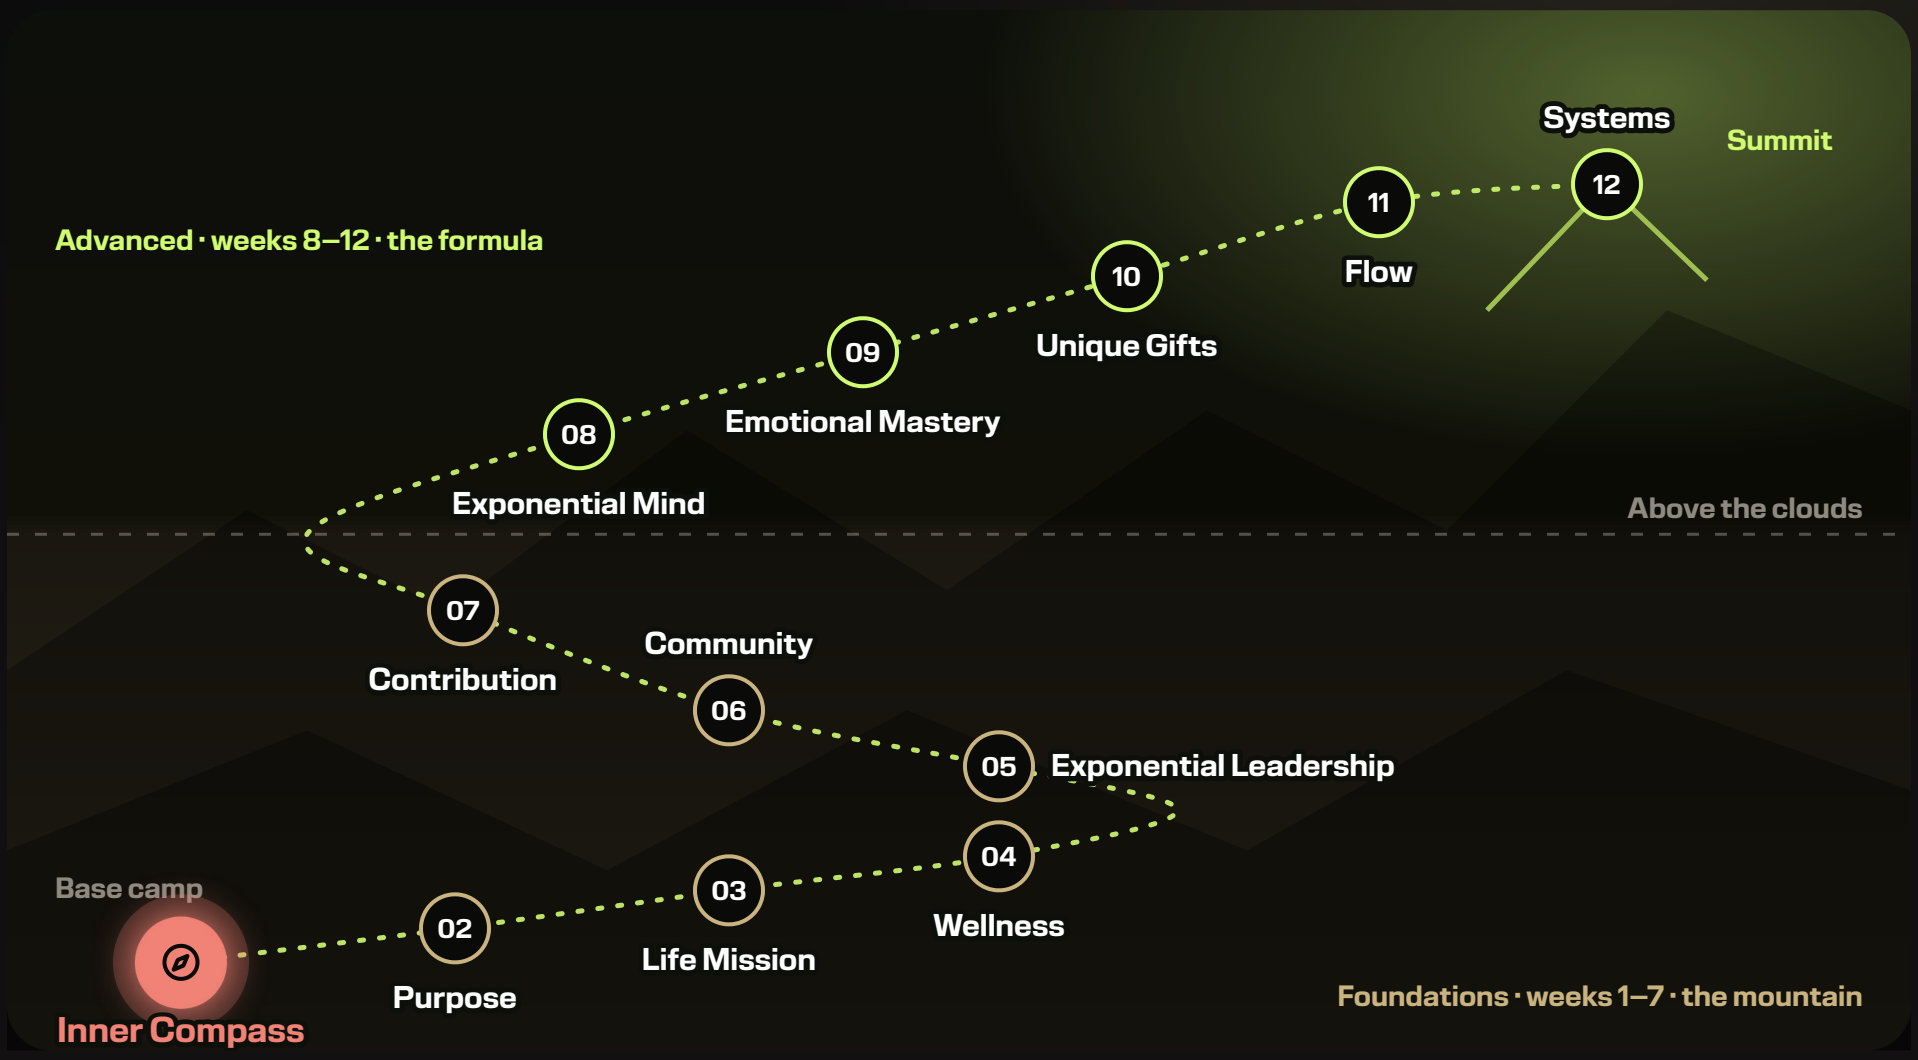

I'm here for you.

You're at base camp. Inner Compass is in red.

Inner Compass now, from red to green. Then Purpose and on up the mountain. Fast or slow, as you like.

Brake 01 · Inner Compass activation · Mind

A map you've outgrown.

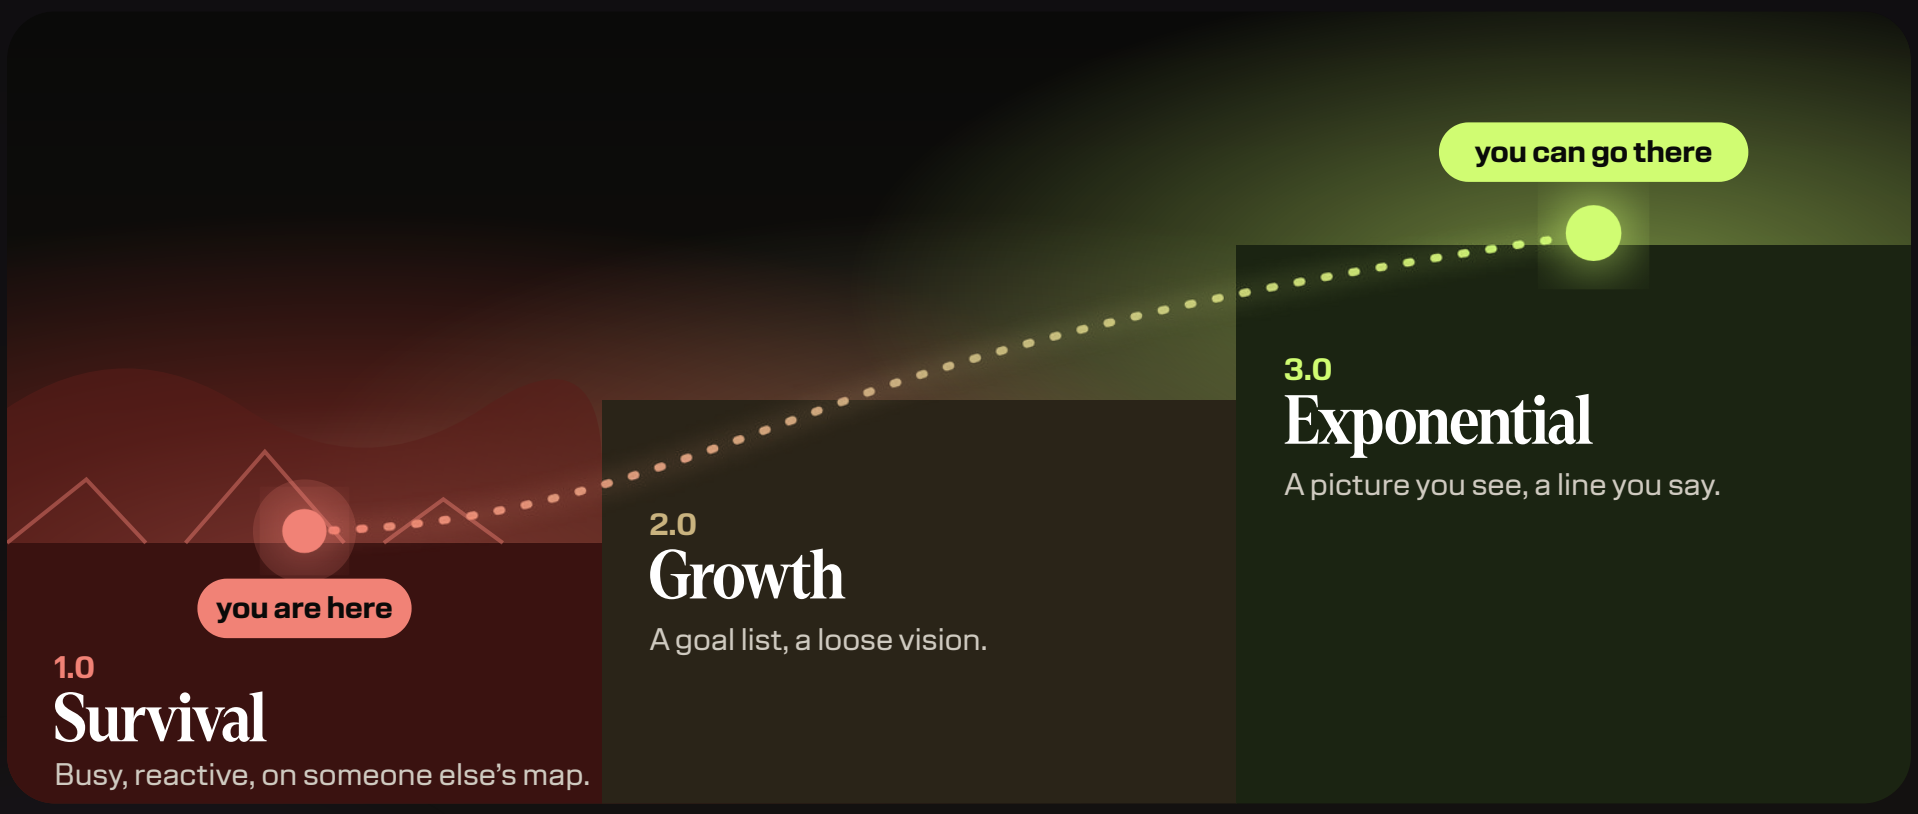

What it is. You got here on a map that worked. Now the days are full and the picture of where you're going is blurry. You move, but you can't say toward what.

How it works. The old program. Goals set by the last chapter, running on autopilot. A sleeping capacity. Clarity on demand: a vision you can see and a mission you can say.

How you recognise it.

- You're busy and can't say what for.
- The vision changes with the week.
- Big decisions wait for a sign.
- You'd struggle to describe your life three years out.

Three levels · you are here, and you can go there

Red is where it's heavy. The VisionBoard™ walks you from red to green, step by step.

VisionBoard™. Envision it. Write it. Say it.

1.0 · in red from our conversation

1 week · free

Envision it. Write it. Say it.

You at the centre, ten cards across the seven intelligences. Describe each picture, refine it, and the board fills in. Read the story out loud when it's done.

Before

"I want to grow the company and have more time, and, you know, be healthier..."

After

"In three years I am ___, doing ___, with ___."

Quick and simple

Start. Target. Practice. Reach. Upgrade.

Start	the VisionBoard™: where you are today, scored, 1 week
Target	where you want to be: 9 or 10, said with pride
Practice	one week, seven intelligences: see it, feel it, write it, say it, live it
Reach	day 7: the number moves, your witness's word
Upgrade	into your Inner Compass Guidebook. Then the next one, fast or slow

A picture you can see, a line you can say, and the one thing to fix. This week.

The path ahead · 01/12 Inner Compass activation

If you decide to go: your Inner Compass playbook.

1 Awaken · envision it
Vision. "What future life do I want to create and take part in?"

2 Align · check it
Mission. "Is it in harmony across all seven intelligences?"

3 Accelerate · say it
Story. Write it in the present tense. Say it to a witness. VisionBoard™ is this step: envision it.

One week, step by step

1–2	3	4	5	6	7
vision: the summit	the seven cards	mission: the goal ladder	story: rewritten, present tense	the board	Guidebook, first move

What you keep: your Exponential Inner Compass Guidebook, filled out. Your vision on one page, your mission with the goal ladder, your story rewritten in the present tense, your Vision Board. You open it every Monday.

With you all week: Sage™, the trainer who follows your pace, and a witness, one person you choose.
